LOOKING FOR JAY GOULD.

A CRANK SAYS HE WAS ORDERED TO KILL THE WIZARD.

He Will be Examined as to His Sanity—A Railroad Man Falls $20,000 Short in His Accounts—His Real Estate Will be Taken to make Good the Deficit.

NEW YORK, May 7.—A dangerous crank who gives the name of Charles J. Dickson has been arrested at the request of Jay Gould. Dickson went on Monday to the house of Dr. Munn, Mr. Gould's physician, and announced that he was vice-president of the order called "Christ Followers," and that he had a mission to kill Jay Gould. If, however, the millionaire would give him $60,000 and make certain arrangements for the distribution of his property to charity he would refrain from assassinating him. Dickson will be examined as to his sanity. On Dickson's person, when arrested, were found a blackjack and a pistol. He made resistance, and after reaching police headquarters told Police Inspector Byrnes that he was in the land commission business at Pueblo, Col., and left there April 15. He related a thrilling story to the inspector about four men he had killed single handed, while they were attempting to rob his office of legal papers. He said he joined the "Christ Followers" about a year ago. The object of the organization was to equalize money. The council met on the 15th of last month, he said, and convicted Jay Gould. It fell to his lot to go to New York and make propositions to Mr. Gould regarding the distribution of his wealth, and if they were not complied with, he was to kill him. Failing to accomplish his work, Dickson said he would kill himself. He would go to Hartford, Conn., his native place, where he had a spot selected for the deed. He would have two pistols, one to fire into the air and the other to shoot himself with. This would give the impression that he had been murdered. The police regard the man as very dangerous.

Found Guilty.

NEW YORK, May 8.—The jury in the case of August Elbogen, dramatic agent, 32 East 40th street, charged with kidnapping 17-year old Jennie Reckweg, returned a verdict of guilty, with a strong recommendation for mercy. The jury was out 18 hours. Elbogen's trial began a week ago. Evidence showed that he had been in the business of sending young women to various concerts for the past nine years. In January last he sent Jennie Reckweg to New Orleans, to become an actress in a disreputable dive known as the Royal Palace. He assured her she was to be given "good parts," instead of which she was made a barmaid. Learning of the character of the place, she returned home in a week, and her case was laid before the grand jury. Elbogen was remanded for a week for sentence.

Financial Crisis in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 8.—This city shortly before and after noon today had a series of these most startling financial surprises it has witnessed for years. No less than three well-known institutions were declared insolvent. They were the Spring Garden Bank, the Pensylvania Trust, and the Girard Bank. In the case of the last-named institution, nothing definite could be ascertained for the time being. The doors of the Spring Garden Bank were shut this morning at 11:30 o'clock. At that time bank examiner Drew came to the door, and posted the notice: "This bank is closed by order of the Comptroller of the Treasury, until further notice."

Three Cornered Collision.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 8.—A three cornered collision occurred in Patapso River, near Quarantine, this morning, in which the brig Edith, with a full cargo of sugar, sank and the schooner Henry S. Little, and tug Peerless were badly damaged. The cargo of sugar was worth $215,000. The loss is estimated at $65,000; insured. The brig's crew had a narrow escape from death, while one of the men on the schooner was seriously injured. The Edith and Peerless were at anchor when the Little was seen beating down upon them with every sail set. The Edith sank in a few minutes. Louis Nelson, Boston, had a leg broken. The responsibility for the accident has not been placed.

Twenty Thousand Short.

LITTLE ROCK, May 7.—Rumors are in circulation here for several days past that Capar J. K. Brantley, of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern Railway, was short in his accounts, have, it is alleged been verified. The railroad officials, beyond admitting that he is short, refused to talk, but from other sources it is learned that the shortage will reach $20,000. Brantley has turned over to the Iron Mountain Land Commission $16,000 worth of real estate as a partial offset. He has been connected with the land department for 18 years.

The End is Not Yet.

VALPARAISO, May 8.—Balmaceda has rejected the demands of the delegates from the congressional or insurgent party, who have been trying to come to some understanding with the President by which the civil war might be brought to a close. Therefore, complete rupture exists in the peace negotiations and it appears that the struggle must be renewed and fought out until one side or the other is utterly crushed.

A Villain Punished.

LONG ISLAND CITY, May 8.—Frank Reynolds, a cloak-maker, convicted of throwing vitrol, was sentenced to five years and eight months imprisonment to-day and hard labor. The motion for a new trial was denied. He was one of the Jamaica vitrol throwers.

A Bank Suspends.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8.—The Spring Garden National Bank has closed its doors. The bank had $750,000, and $126,500 surplus. J. W. Kennedy is the president.

THE BEAR AND CHARLESTON.

The Bear's Orders Unknown—The Charleston to Capture the Itata.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Capt. Healy, of the revenue cutter Bear, in an official report to Capt. Sheppard, chief of the revenue marine service, bearing date of Sitka, Alaska, April 14, states that the Bear will sail on April 15th for Ounalaska and Seal Islands. Captain Healy has on board the Bear, besides the officers and crew, Governor Knapp, of Alaska, U.S. Commissioner Johnston and deputy U. S. Marshal, who in their official capacity intended to make a trip with him. The Bear expected to return to Sitka by June 21st and await instructions from Washington, which are expected to be sent by the Rush.

No information can be obtained at the Navy Department as to what instructions, if any, have been sent to the officer commanding the United States steamer Charleston, in regard to the recapture of the insurgent vessel Itata. The only instructions issued to the Charleston that the Navy Department will make public are those ordering the vessel to prepare for sea, issued two weeks ago. The Charleston would have received a clearing order before this matter occurred, had it not been for the President's visit to San Francisco. The Charleston is now at Goat Island, near San Francisco, but it is impossible to ascertain at the Navy Department what instructions have been issued to the vessel. It is generally believed, however, that she will make an effort to recapture the Itata, and that instructions had been cabled to Admiral McCann, now at Valparaiso, to put to sea with the Baltimore and Pensacola order to intercept, if possible the insurgents vessel. Similar instructions, it is believed have been sent to Admiral Brown, commanding the Pacific station. Admiral Brown was last heard from at Callao, Peru, on Friday last, with the U. S. Steamship San Francisco.

NANAIMO NEWS.

Reception of Rev. G. H. Lovey—I.O.O.F. Excursion—Horticultural Society.

NANAIMO, May 8.—The Templars Hall was densely crowded last evening to welcome the Rev. G. H. Lovey to his new field of labor. Dr. Prager occupied the chair and previous to introducing the pastor, he paid him many pleasant compliments. Rev. Lovey, in the course of his eloquent and pithy address, announced his intention of issuing a monthly paper, which will contain many things that he has to say and all that he would have said last evening. He alluded to the future of Nanaimo and felt sure it would go ahead. He hoped there would be no rivalry between the churches unless it was a rivalry that would advance the work of Christ. He had many pleasant things to say of the Rev. J. B. Good, for the kind manner in which he had been received and treated by him. He complained of the newspapers misrepresenting things, and said: "You must not always believe what you see in newspapers (I hope there are no reporters here) although they have done a great deal of good and I am grateful to them, but I am anxious that what they state shall be the truth. I don't think they misrepresent things from actual malice, but misrepresentation often occurs. Remember the proverb. 'In conscience and in confidence shall be your strength.'" He was strongly in favor of commencing building operations as early as possible. A very lengthy programme was gone through and between the singing refreshments were served by the ladies and highly enjoyed. Previous to the close Rev. J. H. Loney, said "I wish to correct an impression which my remarks about newspapers has made when I mentioned the matter I was not alluding to the Free Press but to the Colonist. A collection of $70 was taken up and the event terminated.

THE FIRE LADDIES TURN OUT.

The members of the fire department who intend to take part in the hose reel contest on May 24th, turned out last night, for the first time this season, to practise. The prize put up for contest is $125, but the fire laddies will endeavor by subscription to increase this amount, in order to induce other teams along the coast to visit here. They got over the ground last night in remarkably quick time, and the water was obtained with all possible dispatch. Should the home team win the contest, the principal portion of the money will be devoted to the new building which they are about to erect.

I. O. O. F. EXCURSION.

At the legular meeting of the Odd Fellows Lodge on Wednesday night, it was arranged that their annual excursion should be a trip to Vancuver by special steamer on July 1st, Dominion Day. The previous undertakings of the kind by the above lodge have always turned out to be a grand success, so that it is a foregone conclusion that the one intended to be given this year will be well patronized. The month of July truly promises to be a month of pleasure to the Nanaimoites.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

A public meeting was held in the council chamber last evening for the purpose of making arrangements to promote the organization of an horticultural and agricultural society. Mayor Hilbert occupied the chair. A letter was received from Mr. S. M. Robins and read at the meeting, stating that in addition to the $100 he had already subscribed, he would give another $100 for the best kept five acre lot. The secretary (E Whiffen) stated that between $400 and $500 had been collected. Mayor Hilbert and Mr. Whiffen both announced their intention of giving a special prize for the best kept gardens in town.

The shares for the electric tramway will amount to $100,000, owing to a typographical error in the issue of the 6th, it only represented $10,000.

CONSTERNATION CAUSED

BY THE UNITED STATES' ACTION AT SAN DIEGO.

England Has Been Favoring the Chilian Revolutionary Party—The Stoning of an American in Florence Regretted by the Authorities of That City.

LONDON, May 8.—It has leaked out that considerable perturbation exists in the foreign office over the action of the United States in seizing a vessel of the Chilian insurgents. The insurrection from the first has been favored by Great Britain and the British Legation at Santiago has more than once extended a valuable helping hand to the rebels through the agency of the British fleet. Under a thin pretext of surrender to superior forces, English merchant vessels have kept the insurgents in supplies, in return for ample compensation, and the British Government has presented no protest against such pretended and profitable seizures, Lord Salisbury even going so far as to advise the payment of duties exacted by the insurgents at the ports held by them, it being on these duties that the insurrection depends for sustenance. Therefore, the vigorous action of the United States to prevent the revolutionists from using American ports, has caused almost consternation among the various British interests that have been supporting the rebellion. It is said that representatives of the Congress party have gained powerful influence in their behalf in France by making promises to entertain the Dreyfus claim which Balmaceda sternly rejected when presented with the endorsement of the French Government.

IT WAS A BEGGAR STARTED IT.

A Rome dispatch says that while the Italian press protests against the failure to prosecute the Italian lynchers, the affair has ceased to excite serious public interest, in view of the gravity of the situation in Italy. The stoning of Mr. Jacques, the American at Florence, was, it appears, the act of some of the worst class, and is said to have been incited in the first place by a beggar to whose appeal for alms Mr. Jacques neglected to listen. It is claimed that the incident had no motive relating to the massacre at New Orleans, and it is deeply regretted by the Florence authorities, whose city depends upon American patronage to a great extent for income. In Rome Americans go about entirely unmolested, and it is believed that they are safe in any part of Italy where other people are safe.

RUSSIA ANXIOUS.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says that the Minister of Finance views with great anxiety the impending withdrawal of the Rothschild syndicate from the new loan, which withdrawal would seriously interfere with Russia's plans, not only financially, but also strategic economy. The country is not pressed for funds for current expenses, the treasury being in an unusually healthy condition, but the Siberian railroad and several fortifications on a gigantic scale near the German frontier may be delayed by the want of extra funds to carry them on. The Russian loans of 1850 and 1860 cannot be redeemed at par, as the intention was, until the new loan is forthcoming.

ENERGETIC ENQUIRY INSTITUTED.

The German war office has instituted an energetic enquiry on its own account, regarding the death of Col. Prager. It is said that the highest military authorities, including, it is said, the Kaiser, are not yet satisfied that the motive was robbery, and there are circumstances connected with the colonel's history that suggest a different motive. The colonel has of late been extremely severe in enforcing the military regulations against spies, and hardly a day has passed without the arrest of some Frenchman for loitering around the fortifications or attempting to take photographs of the defences. It is thought that he may have fallen a victim to a Frenchman angered by having been thrown into durance by a German officer in what was once a French city.

He Repudiates the Statement.

LONDON, May 8.—In an interview today Col. North, the "nitrate king," said it was absolutely untrue that he supported either side of the Chilian conflict in a pecuniary manner or had otherwise taken sides in the contest. He declared he would continue to observe the most complete neutrality.

Referring to advices received at San Francisco from San Diego, California, to the effect that the drafts given in payment for the supplies purchased for the Itata were drawn on the bank of London and on the bank of Tarapaca, both of which institutions are said to be controlled by Col. North, he said: "If the bank of Tarapaca has been drawn upon in the payment of supplies purchased for the Itata or for any other vessel the drafts were issued merely in the ordinary course of business and in no way prove that I had any connection with the transaction."

Great Liberal Gain.

LONDON, May 8.—In South Dorset division yesterday, Brymer, the Conservative candidate for election to the House of Commons, defeated Edgecombe (Gladstone Liberal) by forty votes, Brymer receiving 3278 votes against 3238 cast for Edgecome. The election was held to fill the seat left vacant by the death of Lieut.-Colonel Hambro (Conservative). In the preceding election the late Col. Hambro was elected by a majority of 991 votes.

Loss of £27,866.

LONDON, May 8.—Mr. Goschen, Chancellor of the Exchequer, to-day in replying to a deputation which waited upon him to urge the establishment of universal penny postage rate for the British Empire, said it would be impossible for the government to consider the proposition. He added "already £28,866 have been lost to the revenues of the post office department by reason of the reduction which went into effect four months ago."

The Charleston.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8.—At 9 o'clock this morning the cruiser Charleston, which has been ordered to proceed to sea, ostensibly to try her new guns, but really to arrest the flight of the Chilian steamer Itata, which stole away from San Diego after having been seized there, had not sailed. All her men are aboard and she is expected to leave at any moment.

To Boycott Colliers.

BRUSSELS, May 8.—The miners on strike in Belgium have, through the general committee, demanded that the union dockers of Antwerp boycott the expected coal laden English and German steamers by refusing to unload cargoes.

Murder in Germany.

BERLIN, May 8.—Col. Prager, of the garrison at Metz, has been murdered. His body was found in his quarters this morning. His head was smashed with a hammer. There is no clue to the murderers. Robbery no doubt was the motive.

Approved by the Reichstag.

BERLIN, May 8.—A grant of $250,000 to defray the cost of the steps to be taken to enable Germany to be properly represented at the Chicago World's Fair has been approved by the budget committee of the Reichstag.

COLOMBO, Ceylon, May 8.—The Empress of Japan arrived here this (Friday) morning sharp on time and will leave to-morrow (Saturday) night. The passengers will have an opportunity of visiting Colombo and also Kandey.

No Revolution.

MADRID, May 8.—At the Costa Rica legation it is denied that a revolution has broken out in that country. Peace and order prevails throughout Costa Rica.

Barnaby's Death.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 8.—It has been learned that Dr. Graves' patent medicine used to be put up in bottles like the one containing the fluid which caused Mr. Barnaby's death.

THROWN FROM THE TRACK.

A Passenger Car on the E. & N. Railway Wrecked.

Shortly after the noon train of the E. & N. Railway, consisting of freight, baggage, smoking and passenger cars, left Shawnigan Lake station to-day, the passenger car was thrown clear off the track. The switch just past the lake had got out of order, and when the locomotive and the foremost cars passed over it, a bolt came out. This caused the switch to spring, and when the passenger car reached it, it was thrown over on its side. There were about 20 passengers in the car at the time, who were huddled up against the ceiling when it lay on the ground, but luckily none were seriously injured. Mrs. Chandler, of East Wellington, received a slight cut on the back of the head; Bishop Lemmens had his hip slightly hurt, and others received slight bruises.

Mr. C. A. Lombard, who was in the smoking car, which preceded the derailed car, said he was just rising to go into the passenger car when a jar sent him back into his seat. A repetition of the jump caused him to look back, when he saw the passenger car swinging. He just reached the rear door of the smoking car in time to see the passenger car go off the track and the iron coupling snap like a piece of cotton. With others he jumped off and rushed back to the wreck to render assistance in getting the passengers out, which they did.

The passengers speak highly of the way Conductor Black acted, he doing everything in his power to make it comfortable for the injured, while he worked as hard as possible to extricate the passengers from their awkward positions.

The place where the accident occurred was perfectly level, so that the car was not badly damaged.

Chit-Chat.

Mrs. Alice Freeman Palmer announces from the platform that there are today 40,000 girls in the colleges of America. This gives color to Dr. Seely's declaration that before the end of the present century the American women will be better educated than the men.

The Czarewitch of Russia, whose extended excursion has lately taken him to Chinese ports, will probably reach the great naval station Vladivostock toward the close of May and then proceed westward by land, arriving in Orenburg, European Russia, three months later.

The aged widow of Jouvin, the great glove-maker, died at Grenoble, France, a few days ago. That famous manufacturer has been honored by his fellow-townsmen with a statute. Jouvin's most important achievement was the invention of a machine for cutting out leather gloves, and caused quite a revolution in glove manufacture by introducing the thumb with only one seam. At present thousands of men and women are employed by the Maison Jouvin, and when the founder of the firm died he was possessed of several millions, and the fame of his gloves had spread over the whole of the civilized world.

A private letter from London says that the position of the Barings socially has been improved, and not injured, by the crash of the old house. This is due to the spirit and courage with which the members of the family rallied to the rescue of the house, and by the grace and good sense with which the women of the name have borne themselves. Of Lady Revelstoke, the wife of the leading partner of Baring Brothers, a charming story is told. In reply to a lady who sent a note begging her to come with her daughter to a small dance, given while the disaster was still fresh in men's minds, Lady Revelstoke wrote in French what could not have been so perfectly and neatly put in English, or, indeed, any other tongue, "Le baron Dechu, la barrone Decnu, et Mlle. Decadence regrettent bien de ne pas pouvoir assister." This may be recorded as a typical case of making, "bonne mine a mauvais jeu."

An amusing story is told of a well-known Russian woman who went recently to enjoy the sulphur baths at Tiflis. On a particular morning the Countess entered, as usual, one of the bathrooms. The water had hardly touched her body, however, when, to her horror, she began to turn black. She was so frightened at the transformation that, upon seeing her reflection in the mirror she fainted. The attendant, who was as greatly startled as her mistress, cried for help. The explanation was simple enough. It was discovered that the Countess was accustomed to paint her face, hands, arms and neck daily with a substance containing zinc. On that fatal day the poor woman had neglected to remove the "beautifying" coat. The zinc combined with the sulphur and natrium of the water and quickly made an African belle out of the white-skinned bather. A considerable time passed ere the unfortunate lady resumed her natural appearance.

A New York letter to the Philadelphia Press, describing several metropolitan clergymen, relates how upon one occasion Dr. Rainsford forcibly ejected a muscular, strapping fellow who persisted in disturbing one of his meetings after being duly cautioned. A few minutes later the bully returned, and following him was another strapping big fellow, who Dr. Rainsford supposed was a companion. The rector said to himself, "Now I shall have a circus. I shall have to put them both out." The second bully commenced to make trouble at once, and Mr. Rainsford went to him and commanded him to behave himself or leave. He too, was insolent, and the minister was about to attack him, keeping one eye fixed on the other man, when, of a sudden, the first rowdy arose and glaring upon the second one said, "Soy, look a' here, me and Rainsford can clean out a half a dozen toughs like you, and if you don't look out we'll fire you out head first. Dy'e hear me?"

Lord Granville, writes a London correspondent, had an excessive affection for eggs. As one might expect in the mind of any well-regulated Britisher, this affection was accompanied by an honest detestation of "shop 'uns." So sensitive was the noble lord on this point, that he would only eat eggs of whose history and paternity he had some knowledge. It was not easy to manage this when he was in town, but he did it. When he was in town he had every morning sent up from Walmer for his breakfast table two newly-laid eggs. For these two eggs special boxes were constructed. They were well known on the Southeastern line. Inspectors and porters looked with affectionate interest after "Lord Granville's eggs" or "Lord Granville's empties." The great grace of courtesy with which the noble earl was gifted went down deep, and railway men would have done a great deal for "good old Granville," not because he was a peer and a statesman, but because he was a noble man and a gentleman.

Take Care of our Dear Girls.

Thackeray says: "A fair young creature bright and blooming, distributing smiles, levying homage, inspiring desire, conscious of her power to charm, and gay with the natural enjoyments of her conquests—who in his walk through the world, has not looked on many such a one?"

There are many such in Canada, and the numbers could be largely increased if mothers and their girls were true to themselves. We have often with sadness looked upon girls of exquisite figures and beauty, very models of the Divine Architect, who were handicapped with some of the common ailments of life, such as nervousness, dyspepsia, impaired digestion and general weakness of body. We can see the dark circles under the sunken eyes, the sallow countenance, the hollow cheek, and general lifelessness. Such subjects require instant attention; they are just entering the dark abyss of suffering and destruction; and just at this stage all our energies and powers should be devoted to their treatment and cure.

The great succor and relief for them is Paine's Celery Compound, and its use cannot be urged too strongly. These girls are the hope of our country, and their health should have our best attention and consideration. Paine's Celery Compound will do for them what cannot be accomplished by regular physicians. It acts as a true brain and nerve food in their case; it brings to them great bodily strength, keen appetites, and a healthy and vigorous digestion which alone can render life pleasant and happy. Paine's Celery Compound brings to the handsome face a glow of health and freshness, gives bright eyes and a cheerful disposition, which all our girls should possess. Only Paine's Celery Compound can accomplish these wonders, and make our girls what they should be in youth and mature age.

FRUIT GROWERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Next Annual Exhibition to be Held at Victoria.

The directors of the British Columbia Fruit Growers' Association held their quarterly meeting in the Town Hall, at Ladner's, on Tuesday last, Mr. J. Kirkland, the Vice-President in the chair.

Among those present were Thomas Cunningham, D. J. Munn, J. Lister, T. R. Pearson, Peter Latham, New Westminster; W. H. Ladner, E. Hutcherson, Ladner's Landing; W. Knight, Popcum; J. T. Wilkinson, Chilliwhack; A. Buchanan, Port Moody; D. McGillivray, Chilliwhack; — Burt, Harrison River, and many others.

The chairman gave a brief address, expressing regret at the absence of the president.

The minutes of last meeting were taken as read.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Communications were received from the Government, donating $1000 for the association, being double the amount of last year's donation; from T. R. Figg, Mayne Island, stating that catatpa and the common ase trees, planted by him were doing well; from O'Kell Bros., Farnworth, England, asking about fruit growing in British Columbia, and saying that they could dispose of 200,000 cases a year, and offered valuable information about same; from Vancouver World, offering a column of that paper in their weekly issue for discussion of fruit growing; from Brackman & Ker, asking information about the annual exhibition held in Victoria.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Provincial Government for their liberal grant of $1000 for the purpose of the society.

Mr. E. Hutcherson presented an address of welcome from the Delta Agricultural Association to the members of the Society.

MOTIONS.

Moved by Mr. Thomas Cunningham, seconded by Mr. T. R. Pearson: "Resolved, that this meeting kindly reciprocates the kind expression of welcome from the Delta Agricultural Association, and expresses the hope that the meeting will be mutually beneficial."

Moved by Mr. E. Hutcherson, and seconded by Mr. T. Cunningham, "that the next exhibition of the Fruit Growers' Association should be held in Victoria."

There was considerable discussion on Mr. Hutcherson's motion, Messrs. Cunningham, Lister, Kirkland and the secretary supporting the motion, which was finally carried unanimously.

The meeting then adjourned.

EVENING SESSION.

In the evening a public meeting and entertainment was given in the Town Hall, and was numerously attended, many ladies being present.

The vice-president having taken the chair, the band played an overture which was admirably rendered. The chairman called on Mr. Ladner, the secretary, to address the meeting.

Mr. Ladner, on rising, said he did not intend giving any details of fruit growing, but simply to welcome the members to the Delta. All knew that fruit growing was in its infancy, and had already seen what had been grown, but no one knew to what limit it would extend. He, personally, had grown plums weighing seven ounces, and strawberries one and a-half ounces, and he thought, from the interest now being taken, that better would be done in the future. In welcoming the Fruit Growers' Association, the speaker said that he hoped that it would not be the last time the people of Ladner's Landing would welcome the society at the Delta. Mr. T. Cunningham said he was not prepared with particulars and data, as he had not anticipated making a speech. He said it was well-known that interest he always took in fruit growing, and had had great experience in Oregon. In answer to the question, "What can be raised here?" the speaker said everything except grapes, which had been a failure. Peaches were successfully grown. Mr. Cunningham said he had no fear of competition and was prepared to invest every dollar he had in fruit raising.

The Misses Ladner then sang a duet in excellent style.

Mr. D. L. Lockerby, of Montreal, was then introduced by the chairman, who made a good speech, greatly extolling British Columbia's possibilities as a fruit growing country. He also gave the good advice as to the time for picking the fruit, and the condition it should be in for canning.

The vice-president in reply thanked the last speaker for his very practical remarks and the information given was fully appreciated.

The band then gave a selection.

Mr. D. McGillivray, of Chilliwhack, spoke to some length, and was followed by Mr. Hutcheson, who read a paper from Mr. Wilson, of Harrison River, on the importance of labelling the trees.

Another very pretty duet was then given by the Misses Ladner.

Mr. C. J. Munn, the pioneer fruit canner, was the next speaker. He complained that in some instances the fruit was not sorted, and there were very ripe and green fruits mixed, which made it expensive for the canners to handle.

The secretary, Mr. Macgowan, in a humorous speech returned thanks for the reception received at the Delta. Substantial aid had been received from the Government—$500 the first year and $1000 the second year—and with that and the interest generally displayed and its rapid growth, there should be a grand future for the society.

MOTIONS.

The following resolutions were passed at the evening session:

Moved by Mr. Cunningham, seconded by Mr. Pearson and resolved: "That the following be appointed a special committee for the local management of exhibition matters: Mayor Grant, Victoria; C. E. Renouf, Victoria; J. Kirkland, Ladner's; G. A. McTavish, Victoria; William Dalby, Victoria; D. B. Kerr, Noel Shakespeare and Henry Croft."

Moved by Mr. Cunningham, seconded by Mr. E. Hutcherson, and resolved: "That a special committee consisting of Messrs. Cunningham, Hutcherson, R. Latham and the Secretary, be appointed to fix the date of holding the exhibition in Victoria."

Moved by Mr. Hutcherson, seconded by Mr. Pearson, and resolved: "That Messrs. Cunningham, Robinson, Henry and Hutcherson be appointed a committee to revise the prize list."

Moved by Mr. Cunningham, seconded by Mr. Robinson, and resolved: "That at the request of the Directors of the Royal Exhibition and Industrial Association, this Association take charge of the fruit, flower and vegetable department of the show at New Westminster."

What a Change

Is wrought in people who suffer from rheumatism when they take Hood's Sarsaparilla. The acidity of the blood, which causes the disease, is neutralized, the blood is purified and vitalized, the aching joints and limbs rest easily and quietly, and a feeling of serene health is imparted. Hood's Sarsaparilla has accomplished wonders for thousands subject to rheumatism. Try it yourself.

April showers may be the forerunner of May flowers, and they are also certain to bring with them cold in the head, which if neglected, develops into catarrh, perhaps into consumption and death. Nasal Balm never fails to give instant relief, and will permanently cure the worst case of catarrh if faithfully used. Sold by all dealers.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS
OH, MY BACK!
STOP IT NOW,
SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.
I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when Kind Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the DRAGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

MONGREL PROTECTION.

The inconsistency of manufacturers who hold protection to be indispensible to their existence is being curiously illustrated by the tanners and confectioners. The first want "stearine" and "degras" placed on the free list; the second want the duties on American candies increased, or the sugar duty reduced. This would be a beautiful arrangement. Free stearine and degras would cheapen the cost of production of leather to the manufacturer, but it does not follow that leather would be cheapened to the consumer. The tax on the manufactured article maintained, it would be strange if the manufacturer failed to take advantage of it. And the same rule applies to the candy manufacturers. Maintain the tax on candy, but take off the tax on sugar, and the cost of the production of candy is just that much lessened. The confectioner is benefitted but the consumer is no better off than before. Such "breaks" as these on the part of the manufacturers give their case away. In asking for the abrogation of duty on raw material they concede the main point of the free trade argument, namely that free trade lessens the cost of production and hence cost of consumption. That is to say, the manufacturer being able to buy his own material cheap, is able to sell cheap. But this is not what the manufacturers want. They want to buy cheap and sell dear, and to this end favor free trade for buying and protection, for selling. A mongrel protection this; an attitude on the part of the manufacturers of superlative selfishness. Nor are the tobacco manufacturers any better off. They want the excise duty decreased. This arrangement would not lessen the cost of tobacco to the consumer but the tobacco manufacturer would be benefitted in the sum of the amount of the decrease of the excise. Of course if the consumer will have it that the manufacturer shall have an open market as a buyer but shall be protected as a seller, there is nothing more to say; but it does not speak well for the discernment of a people who permit such a state of affairs. If the people would but take the trouble to study protectionism, not with the bias of sectional jealousy but with the cool scrutiny of business men, the absurdity of the thing as a means of developing the country would be apparent, and Sir JOHN'S flourishing of the "old flag" would evoke derisive laughter.

ABOUT "FAIR TRADE."

"One of the signs of the times," remarks a contemporary, is the modification of the public mind in Great Britain upon the question of "free trade."

It is undoubtedly true that since the passage of the McKinley Bill the question of "fair trade," as a kind of modification of free trade, has been considerably discussed in England. But it has been no more than discussed. There is no specific movement on foot in England with "fair trade" as its objective. The leading business minds of that country, including the political, notably SALISBURY and GLADSTONE, have distinctly pronounced in favor of the status quo. The "fair traders" of Great Britain were never free traders. Always opposed to Cobdenism, but perceptive enough to realize that protectionism per se was dead beyond resuscitation, they fell back to the half-way house, fair trade, and with the addition of the fortuitous circumstance, the McKinley Bill, seemingly occupy a strong position. As a matter of fact, however, whether as protectionists or as fair traders their attitude is not justified by circumstances. England has never been more prosperous than during the last twelve months. We have the authority of her own boards of trade for this statement, and if this is not enough we have the report of the clearing house of New York, which shows that notwithstanding the McKinley bill, the volume of imports, particularly in the line of textiles, continues undiminished. There has been a falling off in the demand for Sheffield cutlery, and in one or two other lines in which steel and iron and possibly tin largely figure. But this was inevitable in any circumstance. Already was the United States competing with England in the line of edged mechanical tools; it was inevitable that in a few years more she would produce cutlery which for quality and cheapness would vie with Sheffield. The McKinley bill simply hurried up by a year or two the falling off of the demand for the products of British cutlers and iron-workers. But granting that free trade is not the thing, in what respect is protection going to help England? British "fair-traders" must bear in mind that it is not in the order of things that England should forever lead the world in manufacturing and commercial enterprise. What license has England to continue to lead in the manufacture of cotton and iron fabrics, the cotton fields and iron mines of the Southern States borne in mind? Why should not Canada one day compete with England in the building of iron ships; and what is to prevent Australia from manufacturing woolen goods as cheaply as the mother country? If England cannot retain her prestige under free trade, she cannot certainly under protection. Let her offer all the fair trade she will to her colonies, the colonies sooner or later are going to set up in the manufacturing business for themselves. Being British, they can't help it. It is absurd to suppose that the colonies will not engage in manufacturing and commerce the moment they can see a dollar in it. The colonies are no longer poor and struggling, but are rich and enterprising. Filial regard will not prevent them from competing with the mother country the moment the pear seems ripe. Of course, if England can effect a trade arrangement with her colonies which should give her an advantage over other nations, so much the better. At the same time, however, she must be prepared to sell as cheap as the cheapest. Colonial Englishmen have about reached the conclusion that every tub must stand on its own bottom. They are loyal, but as colonistic entities, as the nucleus of greater Britains, their interests must not be secondary, but co-equal, with those of the Mother Country.

SOUTH AFRICA.

There is a queer state of affairs in South Africa. The Cape Town settlers are irritated toward England for tolerating the aggressions of the Portuguese and Boers; while England, it seems, feeling that something must be done, is about to send troops to Bechuanaland to oppose the raid of the Boers from the Transvaal. Why should not the Boers settle in Bechuanaland? What is the South African Company that its territory must be preserved inviolate from the irruptions of men who are looking for grazing land and land to cultivate? It should appear that Africa is in possession of monopolists, and that not until they have despoiled the natives, and have secured a tight grip on the mining interests will they submit to have their respective territories invaded by honest folk. In this part of the world there is a demand for immigrants; the cry is, come and settle on our vacant lands. But it is different in Africa. For causes somewhat difficult to fathom the Portuguese, Boers and English are at loggerheads, and English soldiery are to enter upon the scene to adjust things. It is just possible that where so many rognes have fallen out honest men in the course of a few years will get their due. A queer state of affairs in Africa!

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The painters in San Francisco have won their eight-hour demand, while in Oakland and San Rafael the eight-hour system has gone into operation without a struggle. These concessions from employers are not merely gratifying as a renunciation of the ten-hour system, but they show that the supply of labor is scarcely up to the demand. It sometimes happens that the eight-hour system is conceded because labor has effected a "corner." In this case, however, it appears that employers have acquiesced to the eight-hour demand for the reason that they could well afford it; that is to say, development was being pushed to that degree that the question of cost was not being considered. It appears that the reaction following the San Diego boom has subsided, and that a counter current of prosperity has set in.

The United States immigrant inspector at Newport, Vt., says in a report dated April 16, that during the previous thirty days an average of about 400 persons a day, most of them French-Canadians, had passed from Canada across the border. "We are receiving at this port," he continues, "three train loads of these French-Canadians each day who are en route to the various manufacturing towns in New England." This statement proves too things, first, that there is a scarcity of labor in New England, and secondly, that there is an excess of labor in Canada. What is the cause of it? The cause it should seem is, that Canada is suffering from industrial inertia, both in respect of manufactures and agriculture. Would the situation be any worse if unrestricted reciprocity was in operation? Given a free market in the United States for her products, Canada with her cheap labor, for these French-Canadians are imported into the States because they are cheap, would be able to develop her latent resources and thus keep her people at home.

Montreal Star: It is stated that the imports from Canada into the United States for the last nine months were greater by five hundred thousand dollars than during any previous period of equal length. This only goes to show that McKinleyism did not McKinley the Dominion so completely as was intended.

What would be the imports if there was no such thing as McKinleyism? But is it not a fact that a large proportion of the imports into the United States was in advance of, and was due to the early imposition of the McKinley Bill?

It is said that Russia has of late constructed a number of strategic railways which will enable her in a month's time to mass on the German frontier an army that before their construction it would have required six months to move. Germany all this time, however, has been far from idle, and the activity of the two powers is taken as one of the chief signs of an impending war. The Philadelphia Record says of Russia's strategic railways that they may be put to a double use, and that they may prove of service in carrying back, in less than a month, the remains of the Russian army. "It is a bad railway," it says, "that will not work both ways."

Relating to the mail service, acting United States Postmaster General WAITEFIELD tendered the sympathy of the department to the families of the six mail clerks killed in the recent accident to the New York and Chicago fast mail. This is the first instance of the kind on record where the United States Postal Department has tendered sympathy to the relicts of deceased employees, which is all the more to be wondered at since talk is cheap. It is observed that while "the service performed by this class of employees is dangerous, the number of killed is not so large as might be supposed." For the year 1889, there were only ten killed, 95 dangerously and 40 seriously injured. Five a year are killed on an average, but the number injured is very great. The trouble is the mail car is next to the engine, and usually shares the fate of the latter in case of an accident.

Within the next two years four polar expeditions will start for the regions of perpetual ice, three toward the north pole and one toward the south. Lieutenant RYDER will lead a Danish expedition to the eastern shore of Greenland, following the coast from Angmagsalik northward. Civil Engineer PEARY, of the navy, proposes to go with a small party of men by a St. John whaler to the head of Inglefield Gulf and travel with sled and snow-shoe to the northern point of Greenland. The third expedition will be that of DR. NANSEN, the Norwegian explorer, who will aim to reach the pole, following the route taken by DELONG in the ill-fated Jeanneatte. The veteran Swedish explorer, Baron NORDENSKJOLD, will lead an expedition of two ships toward the south pole, and an effort will be made to chart as correctly as possible the Antarctic continent.

A Conservative paper argues that the payment of the sessional allowance to our members of Parliament is a great incentive to "needy, disreputable, ill-educated, plausible windbags" to enter politics. The situation in this respect could not be much worse than it is. As a rule, men enter politics with every thing to gain and nothing to lose by it. In lieu of ample remuneration they expect to realize on "spoils." With ample sessional allowance the "needy, disreputable, ill-educated" candidate would be opposed, probably, by an honest capable man, a man who would feel that he could afford to devote some little time to the affairs of his country and that with a view to the best possible results. Such a man the electorate would support. If increase of sessional allowance will induce honest men to come forward for parliamentary honors by all means let it go into effect. However numerous candidates of the "windbag" sort opposed by an honest man the electorate would know which way to vote.

C. A. Godson, local agent for the Rudge safety bicycle, has received a consignment of these well known wheels. They are a pretty as well as durable wheel, fitted with every possible improvement, and are rapidly winning their way in popular favor here.

They Mean Business.

There will be a grand race for the TIMES championship medal on the 24th. All the boys are determined that no matter who shall win, the trophy shall be kept in the province. The New Westminster and Vancouver boys are training hard for the tournament here on the 24th.

Sunday Evening Lecture.

Dr. Campbell intimated last Sunday that the subject of his address Sunday evening in the First Presbyterian church would be "Recognition in Heaven—shall friends know each other in glory?" This is a subject seldom taken into the pulpit, yet one in which Christians ought to be much interested.

Callie's Christmas.

Callie's Christmas having proved such a decided success, Mrs. Bridges and Mrs. F. Sehl have been asked to repeat it in aid of the Jubilee and St. Joseph's hospitals. It is to be hoped they will have a crowded house again at the Philharmonic Hall on Tuesday evening next, the 12th inst., when the admission will be 25c.

The Virgin Mother's Month.

This month above all others perhaps, is most sacred to the devout Catholic. It is wholly devoted to the Virgin Mother, and, in a Catholic country, is the occasion of some very pretty ceremonies. In the pro cathedral here services are held every evening, at which large numbers of both old and young people worship.

Teachers' Certificates.

The annual examination of candidates for certificates of qualification to teach in the public schools of the Province will be held as follows: Victoria High school building, Kamloops public school building, Friday, July 2, at 9:30 o'clock a.m. Each applicant must forward a notice 30 days before the examination, stating the class or grade of certificate for which he or she will be a candidate, the option subjects to be selected, and the place of examination to be attended. Each notice must be accompanied by a testimonial certifying to the good moral character of the candidate.

Official Appointments.

The British Columbia Gazette this week contains the appointment of Dr. McNaughton Jones as Justice of the Peace for the county court district of Victoria. Mr. Charles J. Loewen has been constituted a notary public for the Province of British Columbia, and Mr. George Cruikshank to be bookkeeper in the Land Registry office in this city.

Continued Quietness.

Matters in police circles seem loath to wake up and consequently the sells are kept empty and the police magistrate given very little to do. This morning, as has been usual for several weeks past, things were quiet, only two drunks and an Indian for having a bottle in his possession being present. Five dollars each for the drunks and $25 for the Indian were the penalties.

Coming.

The Young Men's Christian Association have about completed arrangements for a series of lectures by Rev. Dr. Duier, of Portland. Dr. Duier has but lately returned from the east where he met upon the platform such men as Robert Ingersoll, and his lectures here will be on infidelity. He is expected to begin May 23rd. There will be no admission fee and all will be welcome.

Deputy Stenographer.

The official appointment has been made of Richard F. Elliott as official shorthand writer for the supreme and county courts. Mr. Elliott takes a clean, neat note, is a reliable writer, and, besides, is generally popular. What is more to his credit as a short hand writer, Mr. Elliott is a self-taught student. Hence the neatness and reliableness of his notes.

He Was Trampled On.

Mr. F. Bishop, while out riding bareback, a few days ago, was thrown over his horse's head. He held on to the lines, which proved unfortunate for the scared animal in trying to get away, trampled on Mr. Bishop's side. He was carried home by his companions, when an investigation brought out the fact that a rib had been broken. He is doing well now.

Tourist Spoons and Opera Glasses.

Mr. A. A. Clayton, of the Diamond place, Government street, has now completed and ready for inspection, a large stock of tourist spoons, suitable for souvenirs of Victoria. In the bowls of the spoons are etched scenes of the Gorge, Dunsmuir Castle, Mount Baker, and other pictures of Victoria scenery. He has also just received a consignment of beautiful opera glasses, in pearl and Russia leather, which are pronounced the finest ever imported to this city.

Another Montreal Park.

Mount Tolmie has long been admired as a look-out over the city, bay and straits, but not until the present owner got hold of it was it thought of to make a carriage drive to the top, a height of some 300 feet. Engineers are now locating a winding road on the south side that will be about 3000 feet long, with an average grade of ten feet rise in the hundred. This will be a bonanza for the hack men, for nowhere in Victoria district can such a varied scene be obtained as from the summit of this hill.

More Shacks to Come Down.

Messrs. Hooper & Goddard are at work on the plans of a three-storey and basement brick block for Mr. Lewis Lewis, to be rected on the site of his present premises on Yates street. The building is to be 70 feet long by 30 feet wide, the lower floor being divided into two stores, the second floor into offices, while the upper storey will be a large hall. It is to be built much after the style of the Humphrey's block adjoining it, with the exception of iron pillars that will be used instead of brick ones.

Important to Land Owners.

The Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works has issued the following notice: "If persons who have made applications to purchase crown lands under the provisions of section 29 of the Land Act, to whom an extension of time for surveying has not been granted or who have failed to complete the survey of, and to make payment in full for the line applied for are to take note that their applications will be cancelled unless good and sufficient cause to the contrary is shown within 60 days from the 7th May."

Lots of Trouble for Nothing.

The firemen of the steamer City of Kingston were busily engaged all last week and the former part of this week, putting aside good coal to be used on the run between Tacoma and Seattle on Wednesday, expecting that they would receive orders to "fire up." The engineers and oilers also gave the engines an extra rub to make sure of leaving the City of Seattle a few lengths behind. After all this care and trouble the boys were disappointed, as orders came from the Commodore that they were not to run, and by all means not to pass the Seattle. Next time they get a chance they will give the Seattle a rub, without waiting to have a crowd on board to display their speed to.

Viewfield.

Attention is requested to the advertisement of J. P. Davis & Co., announcing an auction sale of lots at Macauley's Point. The property belongs to the Hudson Bay Co., and occupies a commanding position between the entrances to Esquimalt and Victoria harbors. The advertisement as it now appears, contains particulars in respect to the lots to be offered not hitherto published. This sale is the most important one that has yet been announced and we understand from real estate men that buyers are waiting for the 14th of May before investing. The quantity of eligible property having a seaview now on the market is limited and as it is the most popular with buyers it will soon all be in private hands.

Alba Heywood Co.

Denver Times, Monday, Feb. 9, 1891, says: "The Alba Heywood Concert Co. gave a pleasing Sunday night entertainment at the Tabor Grand last evening. Mr. Heywood ranks high as an impersonator, and his sketches in costume — "Wah-shing, the Chinaman," "Josiah Allen's Wife," "The Church Organ," "Silly Billy," and his parody on Poe's "Raven," were all enthusiastically received. He was given numerous recalls. Chas. Heywood's euphonium solo, Miss Annie Millar's violin numbers, and the vocal efforts of Signor Jovine, were all encored. "A trip to Coney Island," by the full orchestra, with anvil fire-cracker and pistol accompaniments, was spiritedly rendered."

Deal Completed.

The final payment on the purchase of the North Pacific Canning Company was made on Monday, and the business and plant is now the property of the cannery syndicate.

To Enquire Into the Cause.

Thos. Shotbolt, J.P., and a special jury, consisting of E. B. Carmichael, foreman, A. B. Erskine, A. McCandlass, H. Saunders and E. J. Salmon, held an enquiry this afternoon into the cause of the late fire on Johnson street. Several witnesses were called but nothing of a startling nature had been elicited up to the time of going to press.

The Barque Archer.

The barque Archer left for Astoria yesterday afternoon, and it was expected by her skipper that some friends would accompany him as far as the cape. But though skippers at sea propose and dispose, in harbor, like other mortals, they are amenable to the vicissitudes of landsmen; and so it came about that the genial master of the Archer was compelled to depart alone, not possibly, however, regretting the circumstance worse than his friends. Capt. Thompson, pilot of this port, accompanied the ship as far as the cape, and reports that when he left her a fair wind prevailed, and that probably by this time the Archer is off the Columbia bar awaiting a pilot. The Archer will load at Astoria for the United Kingdom. May the winds deal gently with the good ship Archer.

The New Methodist Church.

It will be unquestionable that Victoria, in the new Pandora Methodist Church, will have one of the handsomest places of worship on the coast. Just now the finishing touches are being put on, and such an appearance will be made that when the visitor enters the church, he will intuitively obey the precept conveyed in the artistic inscription which meets his eye—"Oh, worship the Lord in the spirit of holiness." Mr. Spillman and his host of painters have given a soft, worshipful air to the place with their artistic fresco work laid on a salmon colored ground work. This part of the decorations is really of a high order of merit, and a peculiarly soft glow is thrown on it from the rich colored stained glass windows. Carpenters are hammering away among the painters, getting the seats in order for the opening Sunday week, when the acoustic properties of the building, said to be excellent, will be fully tested.

Eleven Chinamen Arrested.

There are no new developments in the U. S. Custom-house sensation. Special Agent Mulkey, of the Treasury Department, and Inspector Coblentz, are working on the matter. Attorney John Trumbull is very much incensed at the interview with Collector Bradshaw, published in yesterday's Telegraph. Trumbull says: "Bradshaw is playing the baby act in this matter for the purpose of throwing the responsibility off of himself. He is the collector, and if my papers in any instance had not been passed by him, the Chinamen, whose advent I recommended, would not have been permitted to land. I could not have dragged them over." Eleven of the passengers brought over by the Taichiow, from Vancouver, were Chinamen who came from China on the Empress of India. As soon as they arrived they were arrested yesterday and put in the county jail to await the return of Collector Bradshaw. They have merchants' certificates and tickets of leave from Canada and claim to be returning merchants bound for Portland, though none of them can speak a word of English. Their right to be in the United States is to be strictly enquired into.

Seattle and Tacoma Hospitality.

Mayor Grant and Mrs. Grant, Alds. Munn and Holland, Miss Summerfield, Capt. Snowden, Messrs. Rod. Tolmie, D. H. Ross, John Hall, W. Templeman, W. J. Goepel, T. J. Burnes, M. C. Brown, A. D. Whittier, W. J. Dowler, L. Marbouff, E. Escalet, T. Burnes, jr., H. Ella, W. H. Routledge and others of the party that visited Seattle and Tacoma to see the celebrations on the occasion of President Harrison's visit, returned last evening. They all speak very highly of the hospitality of the citizens of Tacoma and Seattle. At the latter city a committee, at the head of which was Mr. Ed. Neufelder, took the Victorians in charge, provided them with hotel accommodation, dined them at the Chamber of Commerce, and wined them at every convenient opportunity. Seats on the grand stand, where the President was received, were also provided, and in every way the Victorians were made to feel at home. Mayor Grant was one of the guests on board the steamer that took the presidential party around Lake Washington, and was honored with an introduction to President and Mrs. Harrison and the distinguished gentlemen accompanying them. At Tacoma, where the stay was shorter, the visitors were presented with the freedom of the city, and, had time permitted, it is altogether likely that this extraordinary privilege would have been taken advantage of to the full. The hospitality of both cities was not the least agreeable feature of the occasion, nor, let us hope, will it be the least profitable.

The best medical authorities say the proper way to treat catarrh is to take a constitutional remedy, like Hood's Sarsaparilla.

AT THE DRIVING PARK.

The warm sunshine and light wind of yesterday and to-day made the track at the Victoria Driving Park all that could be desired by the Victoria Jockey Club for their races this afternoon. The attendance was not very large but those that were present were well satisfied with the races.

The first race on the list, trotting, 2:40 class, was a good one. The entries were Belle Watts, Maud C., and Patsy. The first heat was won by Maud C in 2:41, with Patsy a good second in 2:42.

THE RING.

CASEY TAKES THE PURSE.

SPOKANE, May 7.—Kid Walker of Tacoma, and Jimmy Casey of Pendleton, two feather-weights of note, fought to a finish in the rooms of the Athletic Association at 10 o'clock to-night. The fight lasted nine and a half minutes. The men fought fiercely from the start, and locked arms repeatedly, so that it kept referee Kenetic busy breaking them apart. Casey was cool and the more scientific. In the third, Walker got a right-hander under the chin. He staggered, half turned, and fell on his face, lying there while the time-keeper counted ten. The purse of $250 was awarded Casey.

DANGEROUS COASTING.

A Breathless Dash Down the Slope of a Glacier.

Tobogganning on a glacier is a sport which might daunt any but an adventurous soul. Evidently it is an experience never to be matched or forgotten. A descent over a part of the Silvretta glacier, which lies nearly ten thousand feet above the level of the sea, and is for the most part smooth and free from the dangers common to glaciers, is described by Miss Margaret Symonds in the Pall Mall Budget:

"Herr Guler had for a long time entertained the plan of tobogganning over a large portion of the glacier. As the the autumn advanced, and the surface of the glacier grew smooth, he urged me to join the expedition, and I consented willingly, tobogganning being my favorite sport. Four toboggans had to be carried up the four thousand feet, and the march was, of course, slow and laborious.

"At half-past four we reached the club hut, a tiny stone edifice with two rooms, a table, an iron stove and hay to sleep on. Soon afterward the glacier was in shadow. Darkness fell suddenly. It was a wonderful world of snow and stars upon which we gazed before we went to sleep.

"At three o'clock in the morning we were aroused, and continued our march for fully an hour and a half up over the snow-fields, stopping about every forty yards to place a stick in the snow, which should guide us on our downward course. Finally we reached the top of the glacier, and after some delay Christian and I took our seats and started slowly forward over the first gentle incline. Guler followed with my friend.

"Smooth and very slow at first; then on a sudden my toboggan glided more easily, then bounded forward. I realized that I was on the verge of the great rounded summit of the Silvretta pass. Below me lay the billowy sea of unending white; beyond that again broken bits of moraine; then glimpses of the verdurous Prattigau, surmounted by innumerable ranges ending in Todi and the whole Bernese Oberland. Then followed the most breathless flight I have ever flown.

"Up dashed the fresh snow into my face, filling my eyes, my eyelids, my mouth and nostrils, and plastering itself in upon my chest. All power of controlling my headlong course had vanished. For a second all consciousness of danger forsook me. I was seized with the intoxication of movement, and hurled forward with closed eyes and lungs choked by the driving snow, which rose in a cloud before me.

"When I recovered my senses it was to find myself launched forth upon a gentler slope, and many metres to the left of the assigned course. A few feet in front of me I became aware of an old scar of a crevasse. It was neck or nothing, and I had no energy to stop. I shot across it, and steered out upon an even plain of ice. I had descended through the sunlight, in the space of five minutes, a tract of snow-field which it had taken us more than an hour to climb at dawn."

SUCCESS IN OPERA.

Method and Training Are Absolutely Necessary for Progress.

Method and training are absolutely necessary to a singer's success. I am no believer in a "natural voice." A shepherdess may sing so sweetly as to enchant her hearers, but she lacks that method which, to my mind, is essential to the professional vocalist. I am a believer in the old Italian school and think it is the only true one. My belief in it is, perhaps, due to the fact that both my teachers, Lamperti and Errani, use only this method. No singer can hope to preserve her voice without an immense amount of self-denial. Great care should be taken as to diet and regularity of hours, particularly the latter, writes Agnes Huntington in Kate Field's Washington. Without constant vigilance in these respects, I should not have been able to sing for three hundred and forty-six consecutive performances in "Paul Jones" without excessive fatigue, or without injuring the quality or strength of my voice. As Lamperti has often said, every throat and voice varies; no two can be handled in exactly the same way. He is very particular not to develop the head tones until the latter part of the second year. To a pupil who wishes to advance more rapidly he answers that the head tones are not "ripe enough" to work with, and to use them before they are ready would take from them their sweetness and beauty, and also weaken their powers of endurance.

It is as difficult to resist trying, and patiently to wait for the moment to come when permission is given to use notes you feel you possess, as it is to realize the irreparable damage one may do by insisting upon singing exercises and arias that call into use these untrained tones. But, so far as my short experience goes, there is only one method, the old Italian, that will enable a singer to make the greatest use of every note in her voice with the least tax upon it. Lamperti insists that a singer who possesses a correct method of using the voice can sing effectively and without harm, even when suffering from a cold or when in deep grief. I have done the former, but am convinced that I could never accomplish the latter.

A Bird's Travels.

A newspaper paragraph telling of a curious place chosen by a robin for its nest reminds Mr. Richard Dean that a few years ago, when acting as one of the judges at the summer show of the Reading (Pa.) Horticultural Society, he found in one of the large cone-shaped lycopods submitted for competition a robin's nest with four eggs. The plants had been brought by road for several miles, and they were not taken back again until late in the evening. Mr. Dean says: "I was glad to learn afterwards that the henbird returned to the nest when the plant was placed in its position in the greenhouse and hatched out her young in due course. The parent birds were able to pass in and out of the greenhouse at pleasure."

Always Take the Best and Safest Boat.

"Here we are, mother at the wharf, and three boats are now ready to cross over to the Park; let us jump on the Albatross, it is nearest." "No, my dear, if the Alert is within reach, we shall take her, as she is not only the safest boat, but the cleanest and quickest as well; and, remember my love, the fare is the same as the commoner boats charge." Do not be misled, or deceived, or induced to buy inferior dyes simply because some merchant near you may keep them. It will pay you infinitely better to take a few extra steps, and get the only genuine and reliable Diamond Dyes, every one of which is pure, bright, durable, and unfading in sun or rain.

FROM PERILS INTO PORT.

Arrival of the Disabled Steam Collier Wellington—Four Days Helpless and Adrift.

Dunsmuir & Co.'s disabled collier Wellington was towed into San Francisco at 10 p.m. May 5th, behind the steamer Mantserrat. She left Nanaimo at noon of the 24th ultimo, and lost her propelier at 1:50 a.m. of the 26th with Cape Disappointment at the mouth of the Columbia River bearing north seventy-two miles distant.

It is supposed that the nut outside the hub of the screw worked loose, for there was no break discoverable, and the first notice of the absence of the pushing affair came when the lack of the resistance of the blades set the engines to racing. Heavy weather had been experienced during all the thirty-seven hours' run, and with daylight of the 26th a terrible sou'-sou'-west gale came on that made the crippled and heavily loaded ship a most dangerous place of residence. The steamer would not steer with only her canvas on and that night when the sea went down a lifeboat with six men was started for shore and aid.

The Wellington rode out the gale fairly well, the captain directing her drift toward the Columbia to the best of his ability, with her short canvas and a sea anchor for his only aids.

By dark of the 29th she was nineteen miles northeast of Cape Disappointment light, and here fell in with the north-bound British steamer Sussex.

The Sussex answered the distress signals, but refused to give a tow to anchorage ground for anything less than a salvage claim. The bark was breaking badly, but the Wellington people refused the offer, as the lights of another vessel were in sight. They proved to be on the Montserrat, and when she came alongside an hour later Captain Blackburn made a bargain to give a tow to San Francisco. Both vessels were pitching in the heavy sea, and in trying to get close enough to pass a hawser they came into collision. The Montserrat suffered most, smashing two boats, some of her bulwarks aft and carrying away a good portion of her main rigging.

They separated after the crash, and almost immediately the British bark Elizabeth, from Portland for Queenstown, came bearing down on the Wellington under full sail. The Wellington made all the signals of distress and disability to give the sailing vessel the right of the road, she was capable of, but the Elizabeth paid no heed and ran the unfortunate steamer down. She struck close to the Wellington's bow, stove in one frame-piece and two plates of the forward compartment, but fortunately did not stick. The bark escaped with a smashed rail and the loss of some headgear.

It was midnight before the Montserrat could get her hawser fast so as to commence the long tow, which was accomplished in fine weather and without further mishap.

The terms of the tow were not made public, but the prospects are that the courts will have to settle a dispute as to the price. John Rosenfeld is the charterer of the Montserrat, and he sustained a considerable loss through having to purchase coal to fill orders on Saturday that should have been filled by the steamer's arrival on Friday night. His charter does not contain the usual clause giving the owners permission to tow or relieve distressed vessels, which leaves the service question considerably wider than it would have been otherwise.

When the Wellington lost her propeller she was in latitude 45:22 north, longitude 124:47 west. When picked up she had drifted to 46:12 north, 124:20 west.

NEW HALL AT CEDAR HILL.

TO THE EDITOR: It must have been through a mistake that you were led to state in a local item in your issue of yesterday that the congregation of the Church Farm, of which Rev. Mr. Brown is pastor, are building a large and handsome hall which will be called Temperance Hall. The proposed new hall at Cedar Hill is intended to be built by a joint stock company, composed of residents of the district, representing all denominations. With the congregation of St. Luke's, Cedar Hill, as such, it shall have no connection. In justice to the promoters and in the interests of the enterprise, I trust you will kindly give place to this correction. ONE WHO KNOWS.

CONSUL EWING.

TO THE EDITOR: During a visit made to Vancouver a few days ago, on meeting several friends, I made it my business to find out what Mr. Ewing, Consular Agent, representing the United States, had done to have raised the anger of so many of Her Majesty's loyal subjects in and around Vancouver and Victoria, and, to tell you the truth, I am of opinion that when the whole thing is thoroughly sifted it will be found that there was no intention on the part of Consular Agent Ewing to in any way hurt or insult the most touchy of Her Majesty's loyal subjects. During his presence at the banquet given by the Vancouver Board of Trade, Mr. Ewing may not have done that which etiquette required from the representative of a foreign nation, but outside of that I believe Consular Agent Ewing has done nothing to so raise the ire of the residents of this province. Consular Agent Ewing thinks, I am informed, to get up and join in singing that part of our National Anthem wherein the following words are sung, "Long to reign over us," he would be doing that which in his estimation would be wrong; therefore, although he got up with the others present, and drunk to Her Majesty's long life and prosperity, he thinks he was not called upon to get up and sing "Long to reign over us," as by doing so, he being a citizen of the United States, he thinks he would be stultifying himself, and I am not sure but that he is right, for if he did get up and join in singing the national anthem of Great Britain, and more particulary that part which I have mentioned, he would be doing that which no honorable man would be guilty of. Yours very truly, COMMON SENSE.

[The friends of Consul Ewing will not be doing that gentleman a service if they apologise for or defend his conduct. The sooner the incident is forgotten the better for Consul Ewing. The man who will toast the Queen and at the same time show his disapproval of the song, "God Save the Queen," is a mental phenomena. There may be a distinction in the sentiments, but if there is we fail to discern it.]

Saanich Methodist Church.

The building proper of the new Methodist church at Saanich is now completed and work has been commenced on the interior and general furnishing. The seats will be put in during the coming week, and work pushed forward to have everything in readiness for the inaugural and consecration services on June 7th, when the charge will be handed over to Rev. R. H. Hall.

THE NANAIMO COAL

(Used principally for Gas and Domestic Purposes).

THE SOUTH FIELD COAL

(Steam Fuel).

THE NEW WELLINGTON COAL

THE "NANAIMO" COAL gives a large percentage of Gas, a high Illuminating Power, unequalled by any other Bituminous Gas Coal the world, and a superior quality of Coke.

THE "SOUTH FIELD" COAL is now used by all the Leading Steamship Lines on the Pacific.

THE "NEW WELLINGTON" COAL, which was introduced early in the present year, has already become a favorite fuel for domestic purposes. It is a clean, hard coal, makes a bright and cheerful fire, and its lasting qualities make it the most economical fuel in the market.

The several Mines of the Company are connected with their Wharves at Nanaimo and Departure Bay, where ships of the largest tonnage are loaded at all states of the tide. Special dispatch is given to Mail and Ocean steamers.

BEFORE THE COUNCIL;

—OR—

Social Life in Victoria.

THE ABOVE WORK IS THE OUTCOME of the recent Moral Reform Movement which took place in the Capital City of British Columbia, and which played such an prominent part in the late Municipal Elections held there. The author discusses the various phases of the question, and has endeavored to deal with the subject in a manner that will be interesting and some practical benefit to every reader into whose hands his book may fall. The position taken by the Ministers of the Christian Churches in regard to the Municipal Election above referred to is also fully dealt with, and although the criticisms may seem severe to some, the author hopes the conclusions drawn and the desire he has shown to do a service, no matter how slight it may be, to the weak and fallen, will meet with the approval of all lovers of justice and humanity.

AUCTION SALES.

VIEWFIELD

J. P. DAVIES & CO.

AUCTIONEERS

Have received instructions from the PUGET SOUND AGRICULTURAL COMPANY to sell by

PUBLIC AUCTION

—ON—

Thursday, May 14th,

AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON,

At Salesrooms, Wharf street, a number of plots of land located at the Puget Sound Agricultural Company's Land at MACAULEY POINT, the finest and best situation for residences adjacent to VICTORIA, the rapidly growing Queen City of the Pacific, and undoubtedly the most desirable place at which to live on the Coast.

forms the Western Shoreline of Victoria Harbor, commencing at the Southern boundary of C Battery Barracks, and extends along the entire water front to the South and West of Section No. 24, containing in all about 200 acres, suitably subdivided into plots of land of about an acre, more or less. The shoreline itself is of the most charming description, being a succession of indentations, bays, and points intersected with smooth, sandy beaches; affording facilities for bathing, fishing, boating and the various other pleasures of the Sea Shore to an extent seldom met with.

VIEWFIELD bears favorable comparison to BEACON HILL, the pride and joy of every Victorian. The soil is similar, and there are the same stretches of lawn-like pasture land, with occasional clumps of trees so enchanting to the residents and visitors.

VIEWFIELD, however, surpasses Beacon Hill in its views of the STRAITS OF FUCA, UP SOUND, and the lovely SNOW-CLAD OLYMPIC MOUNTAINS, which are of peculiar and surpassing beauty, and must be seen to be appreciated. It, moreover, possesses an additional charm in that a truly grand view of the City of Victoria is obtained.

VIEWFIELD has been laid out in convenient subdivisions; it is traversed by well made roads 60 feet wide, well drained by ditches on either side; it is but a short distance from Victoria City boundary.

VIEWFIELD is included in the "Keen" map of the City of Victoria, showing that this suburb has easy communication by means of the National Electric Tramway Company's cars, which pass the approach to VIEWFIELD from the Esquimalt Road.

VIEWFIELD is not subject to the prevailing western winds, Albert Head acting as a wind-break; and may be confidently expected to become one of the most fashionable residential localities.

VIEWFIELD has the advantage of having the Esquimalt Water Work system to supply it with the best and purest water on the coast, and under good pressure.

BUILDINGS—To induce the building of good residences the Company offer a bonus of 20 per cent., of the sale price of each lot to the first ten purchasers who shall within 12 months erect houses costing not less than $4000 each. Plans to be approved by their Agents in Victoria.

The proposed extension of the Northern Pacific Railway to Victoria cannot fail to greatly increase the value of this property.

The following subdivisions have been selected, which will comprise the sale of the 14th of May, namely, in—

BLOCK V—Nos. 14, 15 and 16.
BLOCK XI—Nos. 3, 4, 8, 9 and 30.
BLOCK XII—Nos. 8, 11 and 14.
BLOCK XV—Nos. 9, 11 and 13.
BLOCK XVI—Nos. 3, 5, 7 and 9.
BLOCK XVII—Nos. 1, 8, 10 and 12.
BLOCK XVIII—Nos. 1, 5, 7 and 8.
BLOCK XIX—Nos. 4, 6, 11 and 13.
BLOCK XX—Nos. 1, 3, 4 and 5.
BLOCK XXI—Nos. 1, 3 and 6.
BLOCK XXII—Nos. 7, 10 and 12.

upon which boards with printed notices have been placed in order that the public may readily see which subdivisions are to be offered at auction.

Full particulars of sale will accompany the lithographed maps, which will be ready for delivery on Saturday morning, 9th May.

The terms for payment are to be ⅓ cash; ⅓ in one year; and the balance in two years; interest on deferred payments at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum. Deeds at purchaser's expense.
